

Motor Coach Tours

The Forest Society offers a range of programs for motor coaches that have been enthusiastically received over the past 15 years. Each program can be tailored to suit the audience that is attending the experience. The educational offerings deal with subjects that will entertain the group while educating them in various interesting topics. The selection below is a sample of what is offered; please contact us at info@therocks.org for more information and different activities that can be created to fit your group.

- Tours can last from 45 minutes to 2 hours to fit any schedule.
- Gift shop on property and toilet facilities for coaches.
- We can handle up to three coaches at a time.

TOUR OPTIONS

Mike Didio

❖ Maple Sugaring Tour

Individuals learn the history of maple sugaring, from the time-honored traditions of the Native Americans to the present, why sap moves in maple trees, how to distinguish between red maple and sugar maple trees, and how to identify a maple tree without its leaves. Cost: $7 per person*

❖ Gardens of Yesteryear

Join us for a virtual tour of area estate flower gardens of 1933. Featured are original hand painted slides put together by Mrs. J.G. Glessner showcasing the gardens of some members of the White Mountain Garden Club, with letters from the contributors. The show takes you back to an era when gardens were treasured escapes of their owners. Cost: $5 per person*

Pine Needle Cards

❖ Moose and Bear

Discover the wildlife of Northern New Hampshire with outdoor enthusiast Nigel Manley. Come discover secrets of the natural world with hands on exhibits including antlers, pelts and skulls while enjoying intriguing educational facts about the animals in New Hampshire. Cost: $5 per person*

❖ Heritage tours

The heritage of the Rocks Estate is intimately twined with the history of Bethlehem as a tourist destination. Join Forest Society staff to explore the history of the property through a DVD and an interpretive tour. See buildings that are on the national historical register while learning about the colorful past of the people who made the Rocks Estate what it is today. Cost: $5 per person*

Lynn Lahout
